

Leadership Solutions Limited

Founded in Hong Kong since 2003 to serve businesses in Asia Pacific, including Greater China Region, Leadership Solutions offers a fully integrated suite of services in senior executive search and professional recruitment.

Support Engineer

Our client is a leading organization (In Tai Po). To cope with their expansion, they are looking for talents to join their organisation for development.

Responsibilities:

- Daily computer support services
- Diagnose and resolve technology related problems on-site/ remotely
- Perform regular tasks for computer operations, including hardware and software installation and configuration on desktops, laptops, printers, and varied handheld and mobile devices
- Troubleshoot, diagnose and resolve issues for users that experience technical problems including email, applications, network, voice call, printer, active directory, file system etc

Requirements:

- Diploma or above in Information Technology or Computer related disciplines
- Minimum 3 years Hands-On IT support experience especially for regional office (>Thousands of Users)
- Familiar with PC hardware & software and the administration of Linux / Apache / MySQL / Microsoft Windows / Microsoft SQL server, and network equipment
- Experience in Lotus Domino Mail System administration is an advantage

Interested candidate(s) please send your detailed CV, stating current and expected salaries, and availability in Word Document Format to us.

It is the corporate policy of Leadership Solutions Limited to achieve full compliance with the obligations and requirements of the Personal Data (Privacy) Ordinance. The privacy policy and personal information collection statement can be found in our website. All information received will be kept in strict confidence and only for employment-related purposes.