

NCSI (HK) Limited

NCS is the leading information, communications and technology (ICT) service provider in Singapore. We deliver end-to-end ICT solutions to help governments and enterprises realise business value through digital transformation and the innovative use of technology. Today, we have a strong Asia Pacific presence in 15 cities. Our diverse force of 9,600 ICT professionals have delivered on over 3,500 large-scale, mission-critical and multi-platform projects to governments and private sector organisations in Singapore and around the world.

Cybersecurity Project Manager

Responsibilities:

- Deploy cybersecurity solutions including products like Splunk, Palo Alto, Fireeye or similar type products
- Develop full scale project plans: leading the planning, base lining, execution and reporting. ability to articulate the definition of project scope, milestones, goals and deliverables adhering to established IT governance model, plan and scheduled project timelines (activities, tasks, dependencies and resource allocation)
- Assemble and coordinate project team members (including project owner and vendor-partner), manage vendor-partner statement of work and deliverables
- Manage and monitor project budget and procurement requirements
- Track project deliverables using appropriate tools, manage, mitigate and report project risks and issues (RAID Log management)
- Collaborate effectively with the program management office and program leadership, monitor and accurately report on progress of the project to all stakeholders, present reports defining project progress, problems and solutions
- Manage, control and implement project changes via established project change control processes and interventions to achieve targeted project outputs as required
- Perform project evaluations and assessment of results.
- Check project progress toward meeting its objectives
- Evaluate and determine the cause of deviations from the plan along with taking corrective actions to address variations. Update and maintain project and status information in established PPM tools.

Qualifications:

- Candidate must have completed at least 5 years of project management practice and at least 2 projects in the IT Security space, preferably with large, complex, program development and integration efforts.
- PMP or PRINCE2 certified.
- Demonstrated Project Management experience on system deployments with multiple clients and third-party project team members. Proven track record of delivering IT and or infrastructure projects that involve cross-functional teams and/or matrix organizations with responsibility for budget, scope and schedule.
- Hands on experience managing project risk, cost, schedule, quality, testing, communications, procurement and organizational change management.
- Demonstrated ability to collaborate effectively with other project managers involving interdependent projects on large programs.
- Hands on experience managing policy, processes and procedures implementation.
- Good command in spoken and written Chinese (Cantonese and Mandarin) and English

Competitive salary and learning opportunities will be offered to suitable candidate. Interested candidates please send in application letter and detailed CV with date of availability, current and expected salary to HR Department, hk_hrd@hk.ncs-i.com We regret that only shortlisted candidates will be notified. Data collected will be used for recruitment purpose only.