

Network Specialist (Cloud Project)

(Candidate with less experience will be considered as Network Engineer)

Key Responsibilities:

- Responsible for the overall design and implementation of network infrastructure of the system and network security
- Support for application and data migration of existing applications to Cloud

Qualification Requirements:

- Degree holder or above in Computer Science, Information System or related disciplines
- Valid certification of CCNP, CCDP, CISSP, CISA or equivalent qualification is preferred
- Good command of both written and spoken English and Chinese, including Cantonese and Mandarin

Working Experience Requirements:

- Minimum 5 years of IT work experience
- Experience in design and implementation of network systems for cloud or virtualisation infrastructure project(s) by using network equipment with virtualisation capability or virtual appliances
- Experience in IT security policy design, deployment and administration on firewall, Anti-DDoS and IDPS products
- Candidates with project experience with the government would be preferred

Interested parties please email your full resume with your current and expected salary to us at kirstenho@chinatelecomglobal.com

Applicants not invited for interview within 3 months may assume their applications unsuccessful.

Personal data collected would be used for recruitment purpose only.