

System Specialist (Cloud Project)

(Candidate with less experience will be considered as System Engineer)

Key Responsibilities

- Responsible for the overall support and maintenance of the various tiers of server farms/clusters, storage systems, as well as application security
- Support for application / data migration of existing applications to the Private Cloud

Working Experience Requirements

- Degree holder or above in Computer Science, Information System or related disciplines
- Minimum 4 years or above IT work experience
- Experience in implementation of cloud or virtualisation infrastructure project(s) using VMware vSphere
- Experience in implementation of cloud or virtualisation infrastructure project(s) using the second brand of hypervisor
- Experience in system programming on IT infrastructures for e-services adopting Java EE (or J2EE) architecture on Linux Platform
- Experience in defining security policies and supporting WAF products is preferred
- Experience in implementation, administration and support of software defined storage (SDS) is preferred
- Candidates with project experience with the government would be preferred
- Immediate available is preferred

Interested parties please email your full resume with your current and expected salary to us at kirstenho@chinatelecomglobal.com

Applicants not invited for interview within 3 months may assume their applications unsuccessful.

Personal data collected would be used for recruitment purpose only.